

TRAC is pleased to announce our new 2021–2022 webinar series. All webinars will take place Tuesdays at 17:00 (UK Time) over Zoom. To register for a lecture, please follow the links provided below. Further details can also be found at trac.org.uk.

November 9

Ulla Rajala - Group identities during the Hellenistic times: network analysis, tomb architecture and epigraphy

Register

December 7

Liz Shaw - A traveller's guide to interpreting Roman foot-shaped artefacts

Register

January 11

Kelsey Madden - Identifying the Trafficking of the 'other' Female in Roman Conquest Iconography (1st c. B.C. -2nd c. A.D.)

Register

February 8

Alena Wigodner - Interpreting Absence: Gender Ambiguity in Gallo-Roman Healing Votives

Register

May 24 - Keynote Lecture

Marko A. Janković - Pagans, Christians or just plain old Romans? Religious identities in the Late Roman Period

Register

March 8

Rafael A. Barroso-Romero - Materialising the lived experience of death in ancient Rome: an interdisciplinary approach

Register

March 29

Iza Romanowska, Joan Campmany Jiménez, Olympia Bobou, Eivind Heldaas Seland and Rubina Raja - Reconstructing the social, economic and demographic trends of Palmyra from archaeological data modelling

Register

May 10

Verena Vidrih Perko, Rafko Urankar, Kaja Stemberger Flegar - A queen, a crocodile, and the fall of an empire

Register